About UTS NSDCC

North Sydney District Cricket Club was founded in 1858. North Sydney joined the Sydney Grade Cricket (now NSW Premier Cricket) Competition as a founding member in 1893. This makes the Bears one of the oldest elite clubs in Sydney. The club's home ground is the famous North Sydney Oval where it has remained since its inception. The club also plays at Bon Andrews, adjacent to North Sydney Oval in St Leonards Park, and the picturesque Tunks Park in Northbridge.

In 2018, North Sydney joined forces with the University of Technology Sydney to provide young cricketers with the opportunity to combine their passion for cricket with their tertiary studies. The UTS North Sydney Bears also incepted a senior women's cricket program in 2018/19.

What's in it for you?

Build your skills in a rapidly improving NSW Premier Cricket club. Work with, and influence, a diverse group of cricketers from promising young players to professionals. A career pathway to advance to the Director of Coaching position is available.
